

BARK ALBERT ARRIVES.

CLAUDINE LEAVES AHEAD OF TIME FOR HAWAII.

The Likelike Comes in This Morning From Maui-Steamer Cummins in From Koolau.

The steamer Kinan will sail on the regular Hilo route next Saturday afternoon. The four-masted barkentine Willie R. Hume did well in a passage from Port Blakeley to Sydney, Australia, in forty-nine days.

The steamer Likelike leaves next Friday afternoon for Hama, Hama, Kipahulu, Ookala and Honolulu and is receiving freight on Kinan wharf.

The steamer Claudine left unexpectedly a day ahead of projected sailing this afternoon with a few passengers and a full cargo for Maui and Hawaii ports.

The clerks in the Wilder Steamship company's office are kept busy these days answering numerous telephone queries regarding prospective sailing dates.

The steamer Kaula goes to Waianae, Mokuia, Punaluu, Waialua and Kahuku tomorrow. She brought in 639 bags sugar and 184 bags bones this morning.

The steamers Kaula and Waiwale left for Makaweli and the Hawaiian coast respectively this afternoon. The Waiwale included Honnapu in her route.

The steamer Cummins arrived in this morning with 1100 bags rice from Kaneohe from Koolau and will return thence this evening loaded the guards with general freight.

The schooner Vega has broken all records by coming down to San Francisco from the Copper River, in Prince William's Sound, in eleven days. The Vega brought oil and 1037 cases of salmon.

The steamer Likelike arrived this morning from Hawaii and Maui bringing 150 sacks Reciprocity sugar, 50 head Kawaihae cattle, and 24 cabin and deck passengers. A smooth time is reported throughout the voyage and no trouble with landing freight or passengers.

Lieutenant W. E. Jacobs of the revenue cutter Corwin has reported to the Hydrographic Office that he searched in vain for the five-fathom shoal laid down in the maps as twenty-seven and one half miles west of St. Paul Island, where the seals congregate. Thirty-five fathoms is the least depth found where the shoal was supposed to be.

The question was brought today at the Customs office as to whether the consignee or the party making the entry of goods under power of attorney for the consignee should be held responsible for making a false return on the entry. It was decided that the consignee personally would be held responsible without reference to the attorney who made the entry. This decision is of interest to merchants who will not doubt be more than careful now with reference to allowing any but thoroughly responsible parties to make entries for them.

The American bark Albert, Griffith master, 18 days from San Francisco, arrived in port this afternoon with 2125 bbls flour, 2902 cts barley, 400 cases canned beef, 6000 lb lard, 10257 lbs and 30 cts bread, 10 bbls and 60 cts whiskey, 3600 gals wine, 10 lb-bbls herrings, 160 cts and 45 bbls salmon, 5 tons salt, 850 bbls lime, 1033 lbs hams and bacon, 1080 lbs tea, 75 cts canned goods, 50 cts fish, 10 rolls leather, 10 cts cts, 302 bbls hay, 90 cts paint, 10,082 lbs beans, 825 cts bran, 200 cts milk-dings, 216 cts boots and shoes, 40 kegs and 26 cts powder, 21 cts cartridges, and a large quantity of dry goods, etc., valued at $53,361.
